

The evaluation function calculates the difference between the score of player1 and player2 when the maximum depth-limit is reached.